- A. Any custodial or maintenance employee who has a grievance shall discuss it first with the Supervisor of Buildings and Grounds in an attempt to resolve the matter informally at that level.

 2. If the Association determines that the grievance has or may have merit, it shall recommend that the grievance be heard by the Board.

 4. An employee whose grievance has been determined to be without merit by the Association shall retain the right to appeal in writing to the Board.
- E. If the grievance is not resolved to the employee's satisfaction, the employee may request a review by the Board. The request shall be submitted in writing through the Superintendent who shall attach all related papers and forward the request to the Board.
